Nutshell News

Admiral R. S. Nicholson, U. S. N., 1833 Jefferson place northwest, yesterday reported to the police that his black female setter dog had strayed. J. L. Saunders, 915 Eleventh street northwest, also reported the loss of a pup. Mr. Saunders' dog is also of the feminine gender black and tan breed.

Burglars Saturday night forced entrance to the store of William Morris, 1418 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and robbed the till of $5. Entrance was gained by forcing a panel in the back door.

Mary Herne, colored, 34 years old, 211 N street southwest, sustained slight cuts to the hands during a dispute with Margaret King, colored, yesterday at the above address. The former was treated at Casualty Hospital, while the latter went to No. 4 Police station, charged with assault.

Annie Muller, 11 years old, 4419 Ninth street northwest, while playing near her home in Ninth street just off Webster, was bitten in the arm by a dog said to be the property of William Hibbard, 1019 Webster street northwest, yesterday afternoon. The child was taken home by her father and later received treatment.

SPURS JEWS TO GIVE TO GIANT RELIEF FUND

Selfish Gratification Declared Like Making Merry at Funeral.

Every Jew in Washington—in America—is expected to contribute to the $10,000,000 fund pledged to aid the "war-stricken Jews of Europe in 1917."

A stirring appeal for immediate contributions to this fund has just been made by the joint distribution committee representing the American Jewish Relief Committee, the Central Relief Committee and the People's Relief Committee. Felix M. Warburg is chairman of the joint committee.

The appeal reads:

"Have American Jews become callous to the sufferings of their brothers and sisters, fathers and mothers in the war zone?"

"The question is asked in all sincerity. 'Certain it is that our Jewry seems, in large measure, to have lost sight of its manifold duty.'

"Has the novelty of giving worn off? 'Does any Jew feel that he has done all that is required of him?'

"Do we labor under the delusion that the urgency of the situation is less acute than formerly; that less help is needed; that the pangs of hunger grow fainter with time; that because many have died, the living have ceased to suffer from cold, from starvation?"

"If there is any such delusion it is time it was dispelled."

Need Steadily Increases.

On the contrary, every fresh report received from Russia, from Poland, from Lithuania, Galicia, Bulgaria, Serbia, Rumania, Turkey, Syria, Palestine, tells the same story. It is the longer the war lasts the more difficult it becomes to make American funds stretch to do the work demanded of them. Every report tells of soup made thinner, of smaller portions and of longer lines of famished mothers and children waiting for a bit of bread. We know that all too often, the supply is exhausted long before the ends of the lines are reached.

From the Jews of every country come appeals born of desperate need, asking that the funds be increased—that more be sent quickly or that it may not avail.

And yet American Jewry, with its own flesh and blood involved in this maelstrom of agony, is complacent, self-satisfied, enjoying every good thing that money can buy, that peace and plenty can provide. In every city in our land, Jews continue to enjoy material pleasures, to engage in festivities, to stage social functions, to spend with lavish hands to gratify self, to indulge the vanity, to give evidence of the prosperity that is theirs.

God of our Fathers!

It is as though we were making merry in a funeral home.

The joint distribution committee has just authorized an appropriation of $1,000,000, to be divided as follows: $225,000 for Austria-Hungary and Galicia; $75,000 for Turkey and Syria; $70,000 for Palestine; $5,000 for Bulgaria; $3,000 for Serbia, including Monastir; $6,000 for refugees from Palestine in Alexandria; $25,000 for the "occupied parts" of Rumania, and $100,000 for Russia.

The sum of $450,000 was authorized to be sent for the relief of the Jews in Poland and Lithuania, and this money will be sent as soon as the approval of the State Department has been obtained.

Insufficient Funds on Hand.

These appropriations were in excess of the amount on hand.

Now that our treasury is divested of all the funds on hand it becomes imperative that we raise $1,000,000 at once in order to extend relief in Poland, Lithuania and Galicia, when the opportunity to forward the money presents itself.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish and Sick Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, hoarse throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile, and undigested food passes out of the system and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—A.W.

DAUGHTERS' CONGRESS PROMISES HOT FIGHT

Mrs. Guernsey Would Make D. A. R. Magazine Business Success.

The twenty-sixth annual congress of the National Society, D. A. R., which opens in Washington Monday, April 16, promises to be one of the most thrilling meetings ever held in Continental Hall. If not in the entire life of the organization. With a president general, eleven vice presidents general and a full complement of national officers to elect, and some stirring business pertaining to a loan not to exceed $50,000 with which to finance the Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, and a hot fight on between the treasurer general, Mrs. Joseph E. Ransdell, wife of the senior Senator from Louisiana, and the administration over the loan which Mrs. Ransdell does not favor, a lively session is anticipated. Indeed, much of the tart controversy which has permeated the last few meetings of the national board, is expected to crop out during the congress.

The coming congress will mark the first election of officers for a single term of three years under the amendment to the constitution carried through last year, a plank embodied in the platform of Mr. George Thacher Guernsey, of Kansas, candidate for the office of president general, with her first candidacy two years ago.

Mrs. Guernsey Opposed Loan.

Mrs. Ransdell, who has been fortified not only by an accountant, but an attorney at the board meetings, attributed what she termed the unusual condition of the treasury of the society to the adoption of the recommendation of the magazine committee, made at the 1916 congress, that the magazine be sent free to the 9,000 dues-paying members of the society instead of the 7,000 or 8,000 thousand paid subscribers, as had formerly been done, but failed to finance the order. The national board of management voted the loan to carry the magazine on the theory that the large circulation will naturally call for advertising in proportion and thereby place the magazine on a paying basis, and that the money borrowed can be paid back at the rate of $2,000 a month.

Mrs. Guernsey, State regent of Kansas, and a member of the national board of management, as well as one of the most prominent candidates for the office of president general, has decided views on the management of the magazine, which since its inception has been the bone of contention of the society, and opposed the loan. While she is imbued with the qualities of several generations of ancestors in the various professions, she is a splendid business woman, conversant with banking and large moneyed interests, and if elected will undoubtedly place the magazine on a paying basis, as well as helping the society to a firmer financial foundation. One of her great boasts and pride in the daughter is the work they have done in the short space of twenty-five years in erecting such a wonderful building as Continental Hall and at the same time carrying out the real object of the society in its patriotic work.

Mrs. Story, the retiring president general, acting on the vote of the national board of management, has been successful in arranging for a large loan from Washington bankers, and has unbending faith in the magazine not only becoming self-supporting, but a generous asset to the society.

"STUDENT" AT GAME; ARRESTS HIS FRIENDS

Victims Didn't Know Their Chum Wore a Badge.

If you must roll those "bones" be sure you know who is "fading you." It is an especially good plan to see that none of the recently made members of the metropolitan police are in the game.

If you should happen not to take these precautions, you might find that you are in a predicament similar to that of Helmer Johnston, 28 years old, a Georgetown University student, 100 I street northwest, Saturday night.

Johnston was arrested on the complaint of W. M. Murray, 101 I street northwest, Saturday evening when Murray came in to "let's shoot a little craps." Murray is alleged to have said. The others say they were not eager for the game, but were persuaded to participate by Murray.

Johnston offered to let the party be staged in his room provided it did not last too long, and it is alleged by Johnston, Murray purchased the dice.

Shortly after the game started Murray is said to have displayed his new badge and placed the others under arrest, who were in a predicament similar to that of Helmer Johnston, 28 years old, a Georgetown University student, 100 I street northwest, Saturday night.

On the way to the patrol box at First and H streets northwest a party of negroes started in to stone the embryonic guardian of the peace, who, it is alleged, opened his revolver and emptied the chamber at the negroes.

Police men Garth and Mansfield, on duty several blocks away, heard the shots and hurried to the scene. According to the officers, Murray had a smoking gun in his hand, but didn't know him and arrested him, taking him to No. 6 station, where he was held until he was identified as a police recruit.

Johnston was released on $25 collateral. The other two young men were summoned as witnesses.

TEA AT HOME CLUB.

The second Sunday afternoon tea of the season was given yesterday afternoon by the Home Club, 14 Jackson place north-west. Miss Belle M. Thompson, of the Patent Office, and Miss Helen M. Frye, of the Geological Survey, as heads of the tea room committee, acted as hosts. Nearly 90 members and their friends were entertained. A musical program was rendered.

U. S. STUDENT OFFICERS BEGIN TRAINING COURSE

Fifty-four Take First Lesson—Weather Keeps Rest Home.

The first training of the National Capital Military College for military service was staged in Rock Creek Park yesterday afternoon under the leadership of Maj. Spencer Bomar and Capt. Israel Putnam.

Fifty-four young men assembled at the loop entrance to Rock Creek Park and began their course of instruction to fit themselves to be officers in the United States army should war come. About 200 men belong to the college, but inclement weather kept the others at home.

The recruits were put through a snappy drill lasting two hours and instructed in giving commands. Between drills Maj. Bomar and Capt. Putnam spoke to the men on map and chart making.

The course of training will occupy about two years, according to Maj. Bomar, but the recruits will be in good shape for quick service in two months' time.

An effort will be made to secure school buildings as drill halls, to be used in inclement weather. The Harrison School has been proposed, but no definite action has been taken. Superintendent of Schools Thurston is said to be in accord with the plan.

Tuesday evening a quiz will be held at the Home Club for the purpose of acquainting the men with military laws and matters to be learned off the drill field. The second drill will be held in Rock Creek Park next Sunday afternoon.

SUITCASE "LOCKED UP;" FOUND FULL IN STATION

"Dat suitcase might have booze in it, boss. Pears to me like it is staggerin'."

was the information passed along to Detective Sergt. "Jimmie" Springer, of police headquarters, on duty at the Union Station last night, by a negro who sat on a bench a few feet distant from the kiosk.

"Who does it belong to?" asked Springer.

"Taint mine, boss. 'Deed it ain't," said the negro.

The detective picked up the grip and started off with it.
